Vineyard

A Single vineyard wine made from a 0,7199 hectare vineyard planted in 1920 on a western facing slope next to the village of Lanciego, Rioja Alavesa. We have named the vineyard “Paraje de la Virgen” referencing to the plot´s name La Virgen as the geographical location of this vineyard. Planting density: 3086 Vines per hectare. Square planting pattern: 1,8m x 1,8m. Limestone soil. Altitude: 518-555m. Massal selection. Old bush vines.

Winemaking

We selectively hand pick the centenary old vines in this vineyard. The grapes are sorted, destemmed and fermented in a small tank for 2 weeks with a gentle pump over once a day. We try to make a true representation of the old vineyard that was planted in this village shortly after the end of the Phylloxera epidemic at the turn of the 20th century. Aged in an oak barrel for one year this wine in naturally stabilized and clarified with time.

Tasting note

On the nose we have red plum, blueberry and figs. On the palate the wine is smooth, delicate and tight. A very complex wine that has layers of complexity that slowly unfold in the glass.
